

Senator Uba Sani has appointed Ibrahim Salisu Abubakar as the Director of Strategic Communications. The new Director of Strategic Communications holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science from Kaduna State University.

He has been a member of the EI-Rufai/APC Social Media Team since 2015. He has used his media prowess and skills in modern communications to promote the manifesto of the APC and achievements of the EI-Rufai administration in Kaduna. Ibrahim Salisu Abubakar served as Secretary, Media, and Publicity of the EI-Rufai Campaign in the 2019 elections. He worked tirelessly and played a vital role for the victory of the APC in Kaduna. He also served as the Deputy Director Communications & Strategy for the Uba Sani Campaign Organization during the 2019 primary elections.

He is highly experienced and will add quality governance practices to the Strategic Communications Directorate. He will be based in the Zonal Constituency Office of Senator Uba Sani in Kaduna.